RECOVERY PROBABLE.

Geneva Convention.

AFFAIRS IN CUBA.

GREAT BRITAIN.

THE ROYAL PATIENT.

LONDON, December 12.—The official bulletins are as follows: Sandringham, 8 A. M.—The Prince had a very restless night. His delirium was constant, and no signs of improvement. Noon.—The Prince has been restless all morning, and his condition is unaltered.

5 P. M.—There are rumors that incidents have occurred at Sandringham which indicate a more favorable condition of affairs. Nothing definite has yet been given to the public. The report is given with caution.

LONDON, December 12, 5 P. M.—The latest bulletin reads as follows: Sandringham, 5 P. M.—The Prince has been somewhat less restless this afternoon. His general condition is unchanged.

LONDON, December 12, 7 P. M.—Private and unofficial advices from Sandringham and Windsor received by the Central Press News Agency hold but some slight hope of a favorable turn in the Prince's disease. The patient's pulse remains strong, which is proof that nature is not completely exhausted. The preparations which were making against an unfavorable result are relaxing. The telegrams sent from Sandringham to Windsor are more reassuring, and the hopes of the Royal household at the castle have been raised this afternoon by the dispatch from Col. Ponsonby. The Princess Alexandra is almost constantly by bedside of her husband. When she is compelled to retire for rest her place is supplied by the Princess Alice. Her Majesty the Queen remains at Sandringham.

SANDRINGHAM, December 12, 10 P. M.—The Prince has passed an unquiet evening, but his prostration does not increase.

NEW YORK, December 12.—It appears from the London Times that the Prince contracted his illness at Lord Londesborough's house, near Scarborough, Yorkshire. Several guests who visited the house at the same time were attacked by fever, among them the Earl of Chesterfield, who died since.

Another English journal, in speaking of the Prince's disease, says there seems to be a liability to this kind of attack in the present branch of the royal family. The Duke of Kent, Queen Victoria's father, died from cold and fever, said to have been produced by sitting in his damp boots after returning from shooting. Prince Albert, the Queen's husband, died from the consequences of a neglected cold. The present illness of the Prince is said to have been produced by a chill following the excessive heat of exertion in sporting.

LONDON, December 13.—An official dispatch from Sandringham this morning says the condition of the Prince of Wales is without alteration. The Prince takes food, and has been twice lucid at intervals, but sleep is badly needed. His condition is, however, somewhat more hopeful.

At a meeting of Welshmen last night a vote was passed expressive of condolence with the Queen and Prince Alexandra.

All festivities are postponed.

A cable telegram announcing that prayers have been offered in America for the recovery of the Prince is well received by the English press.

SUSPENSION OF OCEAN BANK.

Smugglers Arrested.

COTTON FAILURES.

The Internationals.

NEW YORK, December 12, 1871.

THE HARLEM RAILROAD.

An important meeting was held yesterday before the Aldermanic Committee appointed to investigate the injuries which it is alleged the Harlem Railroad does to life and property in the upper part of the city. After an elaborate statement by some of the citizens interested, Mr. W. Vanderbilt said the company wished to meet them in a spirit of conciliation. The committee promised to make an early report.

THE OCEAN BANK.

The Ocean Bank, of which Tweed is a director, was thrown out of the Clearing House to-day, the bank having failed. It is said that the bank will resume in a few days, but it is doubtful. A Receiver has been appointed, and it is believed seventy-five per cent. of the deposits will be paid. A meeting of the stockholders is called.

Theodore M. Davis, receiver of the Ocean Bank, stated to a reporter of the Associated Press that he desired it made known for the satisfaction of out-of-town correspondents, that all collections and checks now in transit for the Ocean Bank will be turned over to the National Park Bank. Davis also states that all depositors will receive every dollar without calling on the stockholders.

The Express says the Clearing House of the associated banks held a protracted session this afternoon at the Merchants Bank. The Ocean Bank matter was discussed in all its details. Rumor says that some ugly facts were brought out, which will throw a doubt on the statement that the Ocean Bank will be able to pay in full. Among the reports emanating from this meeting is one to the effect that the Ocean Bank held and counted as legal tender notes memorandum checks of a Government bank official to the extent of $75,000, and further, that this individual was interested in building a canal in the State of Michigan, for which purpose the money obtained on these checks was used. We cannot vouch for the truth of these rumors, but they were freely circulated on the street and generally believed.

The Union Square Bank has been in the habit of making its statements at the Clearing House through the Ocean Bank, and this afternoon it was reported that this institution had been dragged down by the suspension of the Ocean Bank.

The condition of the Ocean Bank on Saturday last, as officially given by the Clearing House, exhibits a deficiency of $234,725, or over fifty-eight per cent.

THE INTERNATIONALS.

A committee of Internationals waited on the Police Commissioners this afternoon, to ask permission to parade next Sunday in honor of Rossel. Mayor Hall, who is, by virtue of his office, a member of the board, was not present, but sent a communication to the effect that he would be glad to meet the Internationals at a public meeting on the subject. This suggestion the committee declined to entertain. The Police Commissioners refused to grant permission for a demonstration on Sunday next, but without expressing any opinion, or giving any explanation, a committee of Internationals, consisting of Banks, Nicholas and [illegible] will leave to-night for Albany, and will wait on the Governor to-morrow.

COTTON FAILURES.

There is another cotton failure—that of Schaefer & Co. The amount is unknown. Wright & Co. place their indebtedness at $39,000, and are ready to settle at fifty per cent. The failures are owing to the sudden advance in price, while dealers are hampered with contracts. Rumor affects the solvency of other firms, but as the staple was declining at the close of to-day, it is hoped that the worst is over. The appreciation in value is owing to the rise in Liverpool under a scant supply, and fears of a short crop.

COUNTERFEITING CASE.

In the Miner counterfeiting case to-day Cole's testimony was resumed, and he swore to numerous sales of counterfeit money made to him by Miner, one of which, made in June last, was of $24,000 in counterfeit 10s, for which Cole gave Miner $1,900. This sale took place in Miner's house, where Miner's wife lay dead at the time.

RUMOR UNFOUNDED.

The rumored suspension of the Union Square Bank is unfounded. The officers deny any embarrassment. The report originated in the fact that the clearances were made through the Ocean Bank. The officers of the latter deny that Tweed is one of the directors.

SUNDAY PARADES.

It is generally believed that the Police Commissioners will adhere to their former decision in regard to the International parade, and that the Governor will refuse to interfere. Edward Pierrepont has volunteered to defend the workingmen if arrested.

SMUGGLERS ARRESTED.

John Hartley and Frederick Salle, merchants doing business in this city, were arrested by the detectives of Colonel Whitley's Chicago staff, on a charge of smuggling ten thousand yards of silks from Port Huron, Canada, to Detroit. The officers found nearly three thousand yards of the goods in Michigan.

REFEREE APPOINTED.

A referee was appointed by Judge Friedman to take the testimony of O'Brien, one of the jury in the "Black Friday" case, who is said to have been coerced into a verdict.

STILL IN JAIL.

Comptroller Connolly still remains at the Ludlow street jail. A decision is expected from Judge Larned, at Albany, within a day or two, upon the question of reducing the amount of his bail.

ABSCONDED.

It is said that Jullien has absconded with the proceeds of the late concerts and ball to the Grand Duke, owing his musicians $7,000.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

Mr. BANKS, from the Foreign Affairs Committee, reported a bill appropriating $210,000 for the expenses of the arbitrators.

Mr. BANKS explained the necessity for the immediate passage of the bill, as the case on behalf of the United States is to be presented at Geneva on Saturday next, but said that the fullest opportunity for debating the terms of the treaty would be given after the holidays on other points, particularly in regard to the fisheries.

After a long discussion the bill was referred to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

The House then adjourned.

ANNAPOLIS.

The Wharton Trial.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., December 12.—In the Wharton case Professor Aiken was recalled. In answer to a question he said that he had discovered that the experiment or test described by him before the jury differed materially from the test as described in the summary. The experiment described in the latter is not a test. Witness thinks it a clerical error, not an error of judgment.

The important variance between Aiken's summary or report on his analysis and his testimony before the jury is that he describes two different and distinct experiments in the former. He says that he dissolved some of the white sediment of the tumbler in water; then added some hydrochloric acid, which gave a white precipitate. This was dissolved in an excess of acid; then when this was thrown in water, a white precipitate was given. This does not occur with tartar emetic.

The experiment detailed in the testimony before the jury was different. It described the solution of a substance supposed to be sulphite of antimony in boiling hydrochloric and its subsequent reactions.

A. A. Kleinschmidt, of the firm of Gosman & Co., testified to selling to the prisoner, on June 26th, a small vial of tincture of valerian. Witness gave her an ounce. The prisoner then asked for a small quantity of tartar emetic, saying that she wanted it for a plaster; thinks he gave her sixty grains, which he charged on their books.

N. H. Hulton testified to Mrs. Wharton telling him on June 28th of the finding of a vial of laudanum in Ketchum's bed, by a servant on the day previous, and expressing the wish that he would tell Dr. Williams and no one else.

Several other witnesses were examined, but their testimony was unimportant.

ALEXIS.

The Duke appeared highly interested in the schools, and requested the Superintendent to favor him with some of the school statistics, reports and rules and regulations. The following is the proposed route of the Grand Duke: He leaves Boston on Thursday morning for Montreal, arriving there on Friday, and remaining until Monday, when he leaves for Ottawa on Tuesday. He leaves Ottawa for Toronto, remaining until Friday, when he leaves for Niagara, and next day arrives at Buffalo. On Tuesday, 26th, he leaves Buffalo for Cleveland. On Thursday, 28th, he leaves there for Detroit, and Saturday, 30th, leaves Detroit for Chicago. In case of the death of the Prince of Wales, the route may be changed.

MEMPHIS.

Steamboat Accidents.

MEMPHIS, December 12.—The steamer Celeste, belonging to the Memphis & Arkansas Packet Company, struck a snag near Pine Bluff last evening and sunk in seven feet of water. It is believed she will prove a total loss. She was valued at $12,000; insured in Pittsburgh and Cincinnati for $8,000.

The Pat Cleburne, belonging to the same company, struck a snag about twenty miles above the mouth of the Arkansas yesterday, and knocked a hole in her bow. She took considerable water, damaging her cargo. She reached here to-day and entered a protest. She goes on the docks.

STEAMBOAT LAWS.

The Executive Committee of the National Steamboat Men's Convention assembled this morning in this city, for the purpose of taking preliminary steps to revise the existing steamboat laws, which have proven so burdensome to the owners of all classes of steam vessels. The Committee, of which Thomas Sherlock, of Cincinnati, is Chairman, and Captain B. S. Osborne, of New York, Secretary, met at eleven o'clock. It was ascertained that twenty-four States would be represented. The draft proposed by the sub-Committee at Pittsburgh, on November 21st, was presented to Congress yesterday by Gen. Negley. The Committee find the Congressmen generally in favor of the desired change in the laws.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

The barometer will probably fall very generally on Wednesday in the Gulf and Atlantic States, with cloud and rain tonight in the Gulf States, and threatening weather on Wednesday from the lower lakes to the middle and south Atlantic coast. The low pressure in Illinois will probably move east and northeastward, preceded by southeasterly winds in the Middle States, and following to-night by increasing northwesterly winds on Lake Michigan. Areas of rain are apparently developing in Virginia, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Michigan and Louisiana. Cautionary signals are ordered for this evening at Chicago.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

The business to be transacted at Geneva at the meeting of the board of arbitration, under the treaty of Washington, consists in the ratification of the powers of the arbitrators. The British Government proposed to dispense with all, but the Washington cabinet objected, and it will be necessary for all the members of the board to be present in person on the appointed day. It is possible that at the first meeting a complete organization may be effected, but the probability is that nothing will be attempted beyond an exchange of credentials.

ASYLUMS FOR DISABLED SOLDIERS.

The reports made at the meeting of the managers of the National Asylums for Disabled Soldiers show over four thousand veterans now cared for, and new men are coming in at the rate of one hundred a week, and will soon tax the Asylums to their utmost capacity. A large amount of detail business was done by the board.

REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CAUCUS.

The Republican Senators held a caucus this afternoon on the subject of a revival of the Committee on Retrenchment and Civil Service Reform. The debate was free and unconstrained, both in a national and party view. The question was not disposed of.

THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

The Committee on Foreign Affairs will not act on General Banks' bill to carry into effect that part of the treaty of Washington relative to the fisheries until after the holidays, but an effort will be made previously to pass an appropriation of a quarter million for the expenses of the tribunal of arbitration at Geneva.

IMPORTS.

The annual report of the Statistical Bureau shows that the value of imports for direct consumption for the year ending June 30, was $270,967,025; withdrawn from warehouse, $188,630,031; free of duty, $59,162,460; additional and discriminating duties, $461,098; total, $518,758,518; duty thereon $202,446 67.

SPECIE PAYMENT.

The House Committee on Banks and Currency to-day talked over the subject of the resumption of specie payment. It is not probable that definite action will be taken on the subject by the entire committee until after the holidays.

CONTESTED SEATS.

The Election Committee has decided that Clark, Republican, and Henderson, Democrat, are entitled to be sworn in as members from Texas, pending any contest for their seats.

UTAH.

Delegate Hooper returns to Utah next week. He favors the formation of a State constitution acceptable to Congress, preliminary to the action of that body on the admission of Utah.

PERSONAL.

Sir Edward Thornton, British Minister, has returned from his visit to England.

Governor Geary, of Pennsylvania, had an interview with the President to-day.

CENSUS EXPENSE.

The entire expense of the census is $8,287,600.

CINCINNATI.

The Blackburn-Lovell Case.

CINCINNATI, December 12.—It is reported that the jury in the Blackburn-Lovell case delayed the verdict because some were favorable to murder in the first degree, but that none favored acquittal. There was considerable applause at the result, which was promptly checked by the Judge.

CINCINNATI & TERRE HAUTE R. R.

General Robert A. Hunter, of [illegible]ington, Ind., addressed the merchants on 'Change to-day, relative to the Cincinnati and Terre Haute Narrow Gauge Railway. They ask a subscription from Cincinnati of five hundred thousand dollars, one-half to be paid when fifty miles of the road are ready for ties and iron, the remainder on the completion of the road. The people along the route had subscribed, he said, nearly five hundred thousand dollars, and would soon swell the amount to three-quarters of a million. The road intended to pass through Dearborn, Ripley, Decatur, Bartholomew, Brown, Owen, Day and Vigo counties, Indiana, with a branch running from Bloomington through Green and Sullivan counties to the Wabash river, while the road laps a fine agricultural district. The resources of iron and coal which it reaches are specially urged as an inducement for Cincinnati support.

Ku Klux Trials.

COLUMBIA, December 12.—In the United States Circuit Court to-day R. Hayes Mitchell, of York, was arraigned under the Ku Klux law on a charge of conspiracy. The jury consists of two whites and ten blacks.

ST. LOUIS.

Law Books for Chicago.

ST. LOUIS, December 12—The lower House of the Legislature adopted a joint resolution to donate the Reports of the Supreme Court, a copy of the Session Acts, &c., to the Chicago Library Association. The Senate referred the same resolution to the Committee of Ways and Means.

IRON STEAMSHIP YARD.

Concurrent resolutions were unanimously adopted by the House calling upon Congress to aid in establishing an iron steamship building yard at some point on the western rivers, in conformity to a suggestion of the Secretary of the Navy.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

A gentleman who reached Kansas City on Saturday last informed the Kansas City Times that on the Sunday previous a terrible affair occurred in Saline county, Nebraska. A party of emigrants with their families were passing through the county westward, when the cold, constantly increasing, prevented them from going further. They concluded to camp and light a fire. They were in a piece of high prairie, and several miles from any house, but some three miles from them was a piece of timber. After unhitching their teams the men started for this timber to procure fuel. Not returning for several hours, the women left their children and started to hunt them. This is all that is known save that the next day the bodies of seventeen persons who had perished from the intense cold were found. The children who were left in the wagons were the only survivors of the party.

THE RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, December 12.—The gorge above the piers of the bridge moved a short distance this afternoon, but lodged against the breakwater, and has since been stationary. The gorge at Widow Waters' Landing, twenty-five miles below the city, is expected to break up soon, which will give an open river to Cairo, there being no ice below the former point. The water is very low, however, the pilot of the Hensley, which reached Cairo yesterday from Platen Rock, reporting but two feet ten inches on the bars.

THE WEATHER.

The weather is clear and quite warm, with south winds. Boats will begin loading to-morrow for below.

SHARPSBURG ITEMS.

Improvement in the Borough—A Ladies' Fair—A Word to Grumblers.

Our borough affairs are in a quiet condition at present. There are four streets under contract to grade, curb and pave. Some of them are nearly completed, but the frost has stopped the work for the present. A number of new buildings have been put up this season and general improvement is the order of the day. The gas works are nearly completed and light is coming.

Our two banks are doing well and will prove a success.

The ladies fair for the benefit of the First Methodist church of this place is now the centre of attraction. It is being held in the new building of T. H. Gibson. The building is near the depot and in the center of the town, and easy of access for all who wish to attend.

This congregation is putting up the finest church building in the Pittsburgh conference, and is a credit to all concerned.

The following articles are being warmly contested for by the parties named:

Robert Stitt, of the West Penn Road, and Jabob Conner, of the Allegheny Valley Road, for a gold watch. They are each worthy and popular, and the contest is becomming interesting, and each road will stand by her man.

One of Mellor's finest [illegible] organs is contested for by Mrs. Liza Scott, Mrs. Rachel Robinson and Miss Mundane. This contest will be very interesting, and the friends of each party will support their candidate with the needful. Miss Hessom and Miss Welch are after a $120 Florence sewing machine. This run will be a good one. Their friends are with them. There are many other articles in the fair for votes and chances, which I will name at some other time. All parties are doing their best. The fair rooms are large and well lighted, and all enjoy the sports very much and the supper is all that Judge Collier could ask. We have a few growlers in this place, who fulfil the Scripture—"strain at a gnat and swallow a camel." Bro. B. is disgusted with the sins of the fair; he will lend his money at double interest, add the interest to the principal, and then swear he has no money on interest and cheat the Government. Elder C. has his religious hours disturbed by the sins of the fair, but a dose of bad whisky or good gin does not hurt him. (Very wise man.)

D. the Grocer, does not like gambling, but when he has an over stock of turkeys will raffle them off. (No sin here.)

Bro. E., he does not like the sins of the fair. But he can tell fibs, and commit no sin, and he will agree to say prayer if brother Wood would have some one wipe his nose and, keep the balance of the congregation quiet. (Good man.)

This is the kind of grumbling we have here, and if they do not let the fair alone we will be under the necessity to expose their sins. Our lady friends deserve great praise for their efforts to sustain the fair and make it a success. They work late and early, and the church is greatly their debtor.

We invite our city friends out to see us and spend an evening occasionally. Dinner on Christmas and we expect a full house. Come friends the church must be paid for, and the house of the Lord out of debt.

Mr. Sims, from the Committee on Vacation, stated that one week's vacation had been decided upon for the holidays.

The report of the Finance Committee was read by Mr. Getty, showing, since last meeting, the following transactions:

Mr. Nobbs from the Committee on Teachers and Salaries reported that the Committee had allowed the Hancock sub-district an extra teacher of the primary grade. Report was accepted and action of Committee approved.

Mr. Sims of the Committee on Vacation reported that they had decided to give a vacation to the public schools, commencing Friday, December 22d, and ending Tuesday morning the 2d of January.

Mr. Craig, of the Visiting Committee, regretted that as a general thing the pupils of the High School were very deficient in elocutionary exercises. He recommended that as soon as there is a vacancy, a teacher of elocution be elected.

Report accepted and filed.

Mr. Nobbs called up the resolution presented at the last meeting for the division of the Howard school district into two districts. He moved that the prayer of the petitioners be granted, to take effect next July, the lines to be the same as those that divide the ward (16th) into two election precincts.

Mr. Praetsch, member from the district, said that the citizens of the upper part of the ward (Bloomfield) were greatly in favor of the division, but those in the lower part thought that it would be wiser first to pay off the large debt that they have now on hand, as the interest on the debt (over $4,000) was enough to pay now; it taxes all the energies of the ward. However, if a majority of the people in the upper district wanted the division, no objection would be made by the school board.

Mr. Craig moved that a special committee of three be appointed to take the matter of the division of the ward into consideration, and report. Carried, and Messrs. Craig, Mitchell and Hamilton were appointed.

A recommendation was passed instructing the High School Committee to advertise for a preceptress to take the place of Mrs. Tassey, said preceptress to be fully competent to teach an elementary class.

Mr. Nobbs presented the following:

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to notify all sub-district boards, where the average attendance of pupils is below the number required for the teachers employed, that in case of vacancies, no new teacher will be paid until the attendance reaches the required standard.

The Visiting Committee for this month is composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Sterrett, Rankin and Praetsch.

Mr. Harrison moved that the matter of giving schools vacations, be referred to the committee on teachers and salaries, with instructions to report. Carried.

Several bills were read and ordered to be paid if endorsed by the proper committees.

The list of exonerations for taxes of the Oakland Board was read and allowed.

On motion, adjourned.

EAST BIRMINGHAM COUNCIL.

Regular Meeting Last Night—The Consolidation Question—Routine.

The regular meeting of East Birmingham Council was held last evening. Burgess Jones in the chair.

On motion of Mr. Haberman a committee of three was appointed to inquire as to the propriety of having a stationary engine at the foot of Twenty-first street to pull the cars up and down, and regulate them with lock rubber.

A citizen complained that the side-walks near Mary's alley were blockaded by ashes, etc., from Campbell, Jones & Co's glass house.

On motion of Mr. Haberman, a committee of three was appointed to examine the matter and report at next regular meeting.

Mr. Stolzenback asked permission to erect a bridge over the railroad at the foot of Twenty-first street. Granted.

Mr. Haberman, from the Finance Committee, asked for instructions in reference to the ten $500 bonds which had been paid and were now out in the hands of responsible parties.

Mr. Hahn moved that the Finance Committee, in conjunction with the Solicitor of the Borough, be instructed to cause the arrest of those who abstracted the warrants. Carried.

Mr. Haberman now that the guilty party was discovered, was in favor of his immediate arrest.

The Burgess read a communication from Chess, Smythe & Co., asking that Councils do not order curbstones to be placed on Wharton street near Merriman's alley. Referred to Street Committee.

Burgess Jones stated that St. Clair Borough had called a meeting on Saturday to consider the subject of consolidation with Birmingham and East Birmingham.

On motion of Mr. Ihmsen the Council was appointed a Committee of the Whole to meet at Birmingham and St. Clair boroughs with a view of discussing consolidation.

A number of small bills were read and warrants ordered to be drawn for their payment.

The Sanitary Committee reported the following expenditures: Bedding, &c., destroyed, $56.40; services, $154.00; vacinnation, $253.37; livery hire, $2.23. Total, $465.07.

The police expenditure amounts to $255.05, and for keeping small pox cases at Mercy Hospital, $65.

On motion, adjourned.

BEAVER, PA.

The Beaver Seminary and Musical Institute.

This flourishing institution, under the control of Dr. R. T. Taylor, is about closing one of the most prosperous terms in its history.

The Seminary Hall that the Doctor was compelled to build on account of not having room enough to accommodate his pupils, is being rapidly filled, and we hope at the opening of the next term the few vacant rooms will be taken.

We had the pleasure of being present at a literary and musical entertainment, given at the Seminary by the "Young Folks' Society" last Friday evening. This society is composed of the young Misses of the institution, under the direction of the worthy preceptress, Miss Mageo, who takes particular pains in training the young in literary truths. The programme was as follows: Chorus. "The Shepherd of the Valley", Society. Salutatory, Rose Andriesson. Essay, "Thanksgiving", Ella Robinson. Recitation, "Town Tattlers." Sadie Jackson. Song, "Tapping at the Garden Gate." Annie Beacom. Essay, "School Girl's Fibs," Lizzie Davidson. Select reading, Eddie Taylor. Music, "Canary Polka," Ellie Robinson. Recitation, "The Grandfather," Ida McDonald. Essay, "Little Things," Julia Allison. Music, "Mollie's Dream Waltz," Lizzie Davidson. Essay, "A Sketch of Beaver," Emma Weyand. Song, "Put Me in My Little Bed," vocal class. Recitation, "The Bells," Jesse McCreary. Essay, Song of the Summer Breeze," Mary Hardy. Music, "Tom Thumb's Wedding March," Eddie Taylor. Essays, "Christmas," Emma Border; "Paper," Anna Beacom. Duette, "The Young Uhlans," Lizzie Davidson and Eddie Taylor.

The Salutatory could not be surpassed by one many years older than Rosa. She bids fair to become a superior writer. The essays and papers were well written and well read. The Doctor can look forward for a fine junior class from this group. The select reading and recitations showed that the school is not neglecting this important item in its instructions.

All present at this entertainment felt well repaid for coming out. The next term of school opens January 2d 1872. It now ranks among the best the land can produce. Its course is equal to that of any of our female colleges. Boys may enter and prepare for advanced classes in any other College or University. The healthy locality should induce many to send their children to this school. Dr. Tayler and wife could not be more attentive to the welfare of those placed under their care. The closing exercises of the school will take place in the M. E. Church, of Beaver, Thursday next. L. W.

A Gross Imposition.

MESSRS. EDITORS—I wish to call the attention of the public to an imposition practiced at the Pittsburgh Opera House, which may partially account for the smallness of the attendance at that place. Last Saturday evening, in company with a friend, I visited this place, purchasing the highest priced admission tickets, but not securing checks for reserved seats. We seated ourselves in the orchestra circle, where we remained until the close of the first act. Then, observing not more than one-third of the orchestra chairs were occupied, we decided to enter the orchestra, where we could both see and hear better. We accordingly took two of the unoccupied seats. The principal usher of the establishment immediately approached us with the interogatory, "Have you checks for seats down here?" (Let it be remembered that we had purchased tickets to all parts of the house.) On being answered in the negative, he said, "It will cost you a dollar more if you sit here." He demurred, and the polite request was repeated several times, when, in order to avoid a commotion my friend paid the dollar. Now there was certainly fraud here either on the part of the Opera House management or on that of the usher. In all places of amusement it is the understanding that all seats not reserved may be occupied by anyone who has paid the regular price of admission. We had done this. If the management authorized the usher to demand fifty cents extra from each person who occupied an orchestra seat they were certainly guilty of fraudulent dealing, as their advertisements implied that the ordinary rule would be followed. If the management are at fault they should see to it that the advertisements be made correct hereafter; if the usher was at fault, they should see to it also.

THERE is one thing which is good for rich or poor, white or black, male or female, and that is Pier, Dannals & Co.'s Bottled Ale—Victoria C. Woodhull.

The Allegheny High School.

The people seemed to take but little interest in the High School question, but that which they did manifest exhibited a feeling of opposition to the enterprise. So far as could be ascertained there were votes cast in the matter in the two wards Second and Third, and of 419 put in, there was a majority of 220 against the school. If the question had been fairly understood, and had been agitated earlier in the canvass, there might have been a more satisfactory disposition of it.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 46f.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 109⅛@109⅜.

THE American Agriculturist, published each month by Orange Judd & Co., 245 Broadway, New York, has closed its thirtieth volume, and is even more fresh and vigorous than when it commenced its career thirty years ago. It is one of the very best publications of its kind, and no other that we know of enjoys half as large a circulation. It is profusely illustrated, and contains the most useful hints for farmers at all seasons of the year. Its editors are men of literary culture and practical experience in agriculture.

NEW YORK is engaged in the admirable task of trying to make use of her criminals. Or, better, she is trying to make her vile and wicked boys grow to be useful men. With this intent an experiment has been made, and a number of boys, guilty of small crimes or handed over by their parents as incorrigible, were placed on board the school ship Mercury and taken upon a voyage. The idea was to give these young rascals practical training as sailors, and also to cut them off from outside contamination while bringing good influences to bear upon them. The Mercury started for the coast of Africa in December 1870, for the nominal purpose of taking a scientific survey, for it is deemed to be desirable to interest as many as possible of these young reprobates in the scientific and higher branches of navigation, in order to give as many outlets as possible to the energy and the desire that are within them. The Commissioners of Charities and Correction have just published a report of the results of the cruise, from which we learn how the Mercury, starting from Sierra Leone, sailed westward crossing the Atlantic near the equator and taking observations and soundings at brief intervals during the voyage. A record was also kept of the temperatures of the water and the speed, depth and other peculiarities of the different currents, and numerous specimens of water and deep sea soil were brought home. Drawings were made of the results of many of the surveys, and the boys took an interest in the thing and were kept under strict discipline all the time. It is believed to have proved to be a very successful experiment and it is intended to try to have Congress give the Secretary of the Navy power in enlisting for the navy, to discriminate in favor of the graduates of such school-ships.

COAL AGAIN.

"The Pittsburgh Coal Kings have been agitated and irritated by the criticisms upon their syndicate and the policy of fixing prices by decrees in this and other markets, and they have at last loaded, primed and fired the old Pittsburgh GAZETTE. A part of the discharge is, we believe, aimed at us, but the slugs fly mainly in the direction of the Cincinnati coal dealers, who are soundly taken to task for want of enterprise and a habit of allowing the Pittsburghers to tie up their boats for nine months. We are inclined to think that a somewhat vigorous friction of the rough edges of the Cincinnati and Pittsburgh coal dealers will be healthy."—Cincinnati Commercial.

The first sentence in the above silly paragraph is manifestly untrue, for after the coal dealers of Cincinnati showed their penuriousness and obstinacy, as well as short-sightedness by refusing to purchase our coal at fourteen cents per bushel, the "syndicate" at which the Commercial is so soured and displeased, at once and justly, advanced the price to a figure justified by their recent outlays and losses. The Cincinnati consumers, we see by the quotations of the Commercial, are now obliged to pay twenty-two cents per bushel; whereas, had the dealers bought at the prices of the "syndicate," they could supply their customers at eighteen cents per bushel, and at that price, could have realized a greater profit than the Pittsburgh operator, not counting his losses by marine disasters at all. The Commercial, in common with all uninformed and wilfully blind people, attributes the high prices of coal at Cincinnati to the exorbitant demands of our Pittsburgh operators, and evades our argument, that at certain seasons of the year, the Cincinnati dealers can fill up their yards at prices barely above the cost of the article to the operator.

The "Pittsburgh Coal Kings" as the Commercial calls our coal operators, had nothing to do either with the "loading" or the "firing off" of our article; not a single one of them had expressed a word or a written line to the writer upon that subject, and what we wrote was from our own personal knowledge of the business, derived through a residence at Cincinnati, as well as at Pittsburgh, and a perfect familiarity with the details, the trials, the losses and the profits of the coal trade, and we are not now and never have been in the coal business, nor interested financially in its progress. We wrote as a Pittsburgher to reply to the oft repeated unwarranted attacks of the Cincinnati press upon our coal men, and we are glad to find from the Commercial that "our slugs" were not discharged in vain, but that our "vigorous friction" has justly touched some of the "rough edges of the Cincinnati coal dealers." May it do them and their customers good. If it shall, our labor will not have been in vain, and our purpose will have been accomplished.

"We shall be obliged to the Cincinnati Commerical if it shall send us a list of the barges of coal 'stuck' or 'sunk' in the Ohio, which may hereafter reach their destination. Should the river rise suddenly, and carry out the heavy ice, not one of them could be saved, but all would prove a total loss, amounting to sixty or seventy thousand dollars.—PITTSBURGH GAZETTE."

It may be difficult to obtain the list, but we will try. We know one company that has reported fifteen boats "lost." Thirteen of the boats are safe and sound—only stuck. The remaining two are broken, and the coal is being saved. Do the Pittsburgh papers all belong to the coal kings? Why do they not attempt to tell the truth about the coal question?—Cincinnati Commercial.

Any one acquainted with river navigation will bear us out in the above assertion, viz: that a winter rise in the river usually sweeps away all temporary obstructions in the river, and the heavy ice will smash a coal barge to atoms, as easily as it would break an egg shell. So far from the query of the Commercial, as to the ownership of the Pittsburgh press being liable to be answered affirmatively, we will say that we do not know of a Pittsburgh coal dealer who has a dollar invested in newspapers, nor do we know one in the Ohio river trade who even advertises his business in the papers. So far as the GAZETTE is concerned, its proprietors are under no personal or business obligations to either "coal men" or any one else, which could induce them to say otherwise than the truth upon this, or any other subject. We have tried to write of this matter in an impartial and truthful manner, withholding no blame where it was due, and giving to all full justice. Can the Cincinnati Commercial say this much with reference to its treatment of this subject?

Again says the Commercial:

"It is a clear case—the insolence of the paragraphs we cut from the Pittsburgh papers make it plainer than ever—that Cincinnati must be emancipated from the Coal Ring despotism."

Keep your temper, good friend; if pork was once worth forty dollars a barrel, and is now worth only thirteen, that is no reason why you cannot afford to pay fourteen cents a bushel for Pittsburgh coal, when Chicago pays on an average twenty-two and a half cents, and pays it willingly, too, because we have no water communication with that progressive and prosperous city. We say again to Cincinnati, build your railroad to the new coal fields; but we will continue to sell you our coal at fair prices, just as long as the Ohio river runs between us; and you will continue to pay higher for it, than for any other in your market, simply because it is better.

"IN THE DARK."

It is by no means an unusual thing to find the political vision of the New York World greatly obscured. It sees nothing only through the ever dim glasses of Democracy. Its visual organs are so completely deranged, and the cataract of blind devotion to party has grown so thick on its shrunken eye-balls, that the clear and fact revealing spectacles of Republicanism are of as little use to it as Russian pebbles would be to a blind man. And yet, there are none so blind as those who will not see, none so deaf, ignorant and stupid as those who will not hear nor be convinced. At last our sightless neighbor confesses to be "in the dark." This will not be news to many thousands who have watched the uneven steps of the New York magnate, since, unable to maintain an exclusively religious character, it plunged violently into the purlieus of Democratic iniquity. It has floundered in the quagmire of Tammany corruption and dishonesty, until now, besmeared with filth, weary, and in a state of complete exhaustion, not having even stumbled on the object of its search, it exclaims, "We are left completely in the dark!"

This despairing wail has been drawn from the depressed heart of the great Goliah of Democracy, who has strutted with a gait of bold defiance for years, and looked with a scowl of contempt on the stripling warrior who has smitten him and his Philistinic hosts to the grave of political death, after reading the miserable and vulgar platitudes of an editorial "sport," in which he assails the President of the United States in the most wanton and vindictive manner, merely because he has not become converted to the one term principle. But in all this the World can find no very flattering unction to lay to its troubled and highly exasperated soul. It chuckles over the coarse and ribald tirades to which the Spirit of the Times gives vent, but in it all it cannot discern a single ray of hope. It is true that the sporting editor pledges himself to wage a relentless war against the re-election of President Grant. But the World cannot see how war can be successfully waged and victory achieved, without officers to command and men to do the fighting, and neither the one nor the other is guaranteed, nor even promised by the chivalrous Times. "We fail to find," says the World, "in this first attack the information now sought after above all others—to what extent this movement is taken hold of by the prominent men in the Republican party. We are given circumstantial facts in regard to a consultation with Democrats, who are invited into the movement, but nothing showing to what extent the influential men in the Republican party are ready to break loose from the patronage of Grant and work for his defeat. The question which the public now want to know above all others is: Are there any considerable number of leading men in the Republican party, who have heretofore been looked upon as the leaders of the masses of that party, who are ready to stand in the breach, raise to the breeze their banner of opposition to Grant, stand by it and fight under it, irrespective of the seductive influences of the patronage and places under Grant? For the best reason in the world, nothing is said, directly and personally, about men of greater or less prominence in the Republican party raising the banner of opposition against President Grant, because, like angels' visits they are few and far between. Perhaps reliance may be placed on one Senator, who has betrayed the party which elected him to the highest position which he can hold in the Republic, and a few lesser lights, but as our philosophic contemporary of the Tribune would say, one, or a number of straggling swallows will not make a political Sumner.

The Democracy are wise in that they count the cost before they begin to build a house for shelter and habitation for the converts of new departurism. They have sufficient wisdom to see that no structure can be successfully reared, or made substantial enough to resist the storm of opposition from the solid phalanx of patriotic Republicans, whose devotion to party ascendency is based upon principle and not on selfishness, political vanity and an unbounded love for notoriety, that is composed of such discordant elements as Republicanism and Democracy. Each, in the estimation of the other, is untempered mortar. The elements are too weak and discordant to hold together. Light and darkness can have no communion with each other. The materials are too scant with which to raise the superstructure, even if they were concordant and harmonious.

The World will not be satisfied with "glittering generalities" on this subject. It loves the ideal, but it must have the real. "There is something," it admits, "said about distinguished Senators, politicians, and journalists of the Republican party meditating a 'new departure' against political corruption and the defeat of Grant, but it requires something besides meditating. Before the Democracy can throw their entire influence and pledge the party to co-operate with this much talked of movement of anti-Grant Republicans, it will be necessary to know that something is being done besides meditating." A wise consideration for a man who is "entirely in the dark." Meditations are not of much account unless they are carried into operative and practical effect. The ass may snuff up the wind, but it will be a long time before it grows fat on it. By uniting with disaffected Republicans, the Democracy will only be snuffing up the wind. If they sow to the wind of disaffection they must reap the whirlwind of defeat, which will be still more inglorious because of the alliance which will be unable to prevent it. It will all end in meditation which "alone will not be sufficient to save" the discordant allies.

The matter is not shrouded in darkness at all. It is as clear as noon-day. The light is everywhere manifest, the fault is in the vision. All colors are alike to a blind man. There are very few prominent Republicans—indeed few—whether leaders or not, that will raise a voice against the re-election of President Grant. Why should they? Has he not redeemed all the pledges he ever gave? Has he not faithfully administered the affairs of the nation, and largely reduced the public debt? Neither the leaders, nor rank and file of the Republican party, are prepared to oppose General Grant's re-election to please the whims and gratify the vanity of a few, and a very few, disappointed place-hunters. After the election of 1872 the World will be "more in the dark" as regards the men who are opposed to Grant than it is now.

A NEW style of receptions is where a number of persons are invited to meet at a friend's house on a certain evening, and where it is expressly understood that nothing but French is to be spoken during the evening.

How the Cholera Lies Dormant and Re-appears.

The British Medical Journal, noticing the fortunate respite from the invasion of cholera in England, caused by the timely arrival of cold weather, adds that it is but a respite, and continues with these remarks, which are as applicable to this country as to England:

During the cold season the low temperature arrests the extension of the disease; it does not extinguish it or destroy the power of subsequent activity in the particles of contagion which await the return of a higher temperature. The Russian experience of 1847 is still at hand to teach us. The epidemic which had become general at the close of 1847 appeared to be brought to an end by the severe winter of 1847-48. From the 1st of February, 1848, there were no more cholera deaths, and every one supposed the outbreak to be over. But the months of April and May of that year dispelled these illusions. Cholera reappeared everywhere in its haunts of the previous year, and spread with frightful rapidity throughout the whole Russian Empire. The number of deaths in all Russia in the month of July, 1848, is stated by Dr. Chasseaud, of Smyrna, in his Prize Essay, just published at Constantinople, to have amounted to 80,000 weekly. The existing state of things at Constantinople, and the history of the German choleraship which has just reached New York, show that a present sense of security is based upon data which are merely local and superficial.

Meeting of the National Wool Grower's Association.

A meeting of the National Wool Grower's Association will be held at Syracuse, N. Y., December 20, 1871, at 12 o'clock M. The principal objects of the meeting will be to take into consideration the present state of the wool interests of the country—the effect produced on those interests by the Wool and Woolen Tariff of 1867—and the proper means to counteract the effort now organizing to procure the repeal of that law in the ensuing session of Congress. It is hoped the State Wool Grower's Associations, will be well represented in the meeting. The invitation to attend is also extended to all wool growers, wool manufacturers, and other persons interested in those industries, of whatever State they may be residents, who are favorable to the objects of the meeting. Gentlemen from other States besides New York are requested to report themselves on their arrival, to the Secretary, at the Syracuse House.

HENRY S. RANDALL,
Pres't N. W. G. Ass'n.
CORTLAND VILLAGE, N. Y., Nov. 29, 1871.

A PARTY OF BOYS belonging to the division known as "mischievous" and dwelling within the limits of the State of Michigan, have lately perpetrated a practical joke that is worthy of record. Most persons dislike practical jokes. This remark applies particularly to the well-to-do citizen that has stopped to pick up a red-hot penny on the first day of April, or the corpulent individual whose chair is never where it ought to be when he attempts to take a seat, or in fact to any of the numerous victims of "mischievous" urchins. But these lads played a good joke on the community and no one was hurt. They quietly stuffed an old suit of clothes with straw and buried it in the ground; they then killed a couple of chickens and spilled the blood plenteously over and in the vicinity of the grave, after trampling the ground in order to give it the appearance of having witnessed a terrible struggle. As they had hoped, the hurriedly made grave and the blood were discovered, suspicions of a dreadful deed of murder were quickly raised, the coroner was summoned in haste, a jury empanneled, and an inquest prepared for. Coroner, jury and the horror-stricken crowd of bystanders "acknowledged the corn" when the straw dummy was exhumed.

THE MORE we think of the matter, and the greater the number of facts which come under our observation, the stronger is our inclination to believe in a distinct suicidal tendency of the human mind. The phrenologists, whose technological classification is infinitely better than their fundamental theory, assign an "organ" to love of life, and call it "vitativeness." Nothing but an absolute predisposition to suicide, resulting, we may conjecture, from inefficient "vitativeness," can account for the felo de se of a mere child; and instances of this are far from uncommon, melancholy, from all points of view, as the facts may be. A case which we find in the London papers is suggestive. Mary White, aged 46, hung herself lately, "because her husband scolded her for speaking to the lodgers in the house." It was in evidence before the coroner that the deceased was of a kindly disposition, though she had frequent quarrels with her husband. Her farewell missive, curiously enough, she left chalked on the back of a large tea-tray. It was as follows: "Dear Jim—You have driven me to do this little affair. Be good to the dog, and ask Mrs. Little to be kind with the birds."

MR. D. A. A. BUCK, jeweler, of Worcester, Mass., has built the smallest engine in the world. It is made of gold and silver, and fastened together with screws, the largest of which is one-eighth of an inch in size. The engine, boiler, governor and pumps stand in a space seven-sixteenths of an inch square and seven-eights of an inch high. Perhaps a better idea of its smallness will be conveyed by saying that the whole affair may be completely covered with a common tailor's thimble. The engine alone weighs but fifteen grains, and yet every part is complete, as may be seen by a microscopic examination; and it may be set in motion by filling the boiler with water and applying heat, being supplied with all valves, &c., to be found upon an ordinary upright engine. To attempt an estimate of its power would seem like rather small business, but for a guess, a span of well fed fleas would furnish more force if they were properly harnessed and shod. The little thing would tug away several minutes if encouraged by a drop of water heated by the application of a burnt finger.—Hartford Post.

A PRETTY good story as to the inventive abilities of the editor of the Springfield Republican has been going the rounds of the press and deserves to be recorded among the archives of the reading-room. The gentleman is a farmer as well as an editor, and his hens refuse to awake at "cockcrow," the reason given being that "in countries as cold as New England the hens are apt to roost an hour or two after the sun rises." In order to remedy this state of affairs, the editor of the Republican has hit upon an ingenious "invention which will add largely to the value of poultry throughout the country." This invention consists of a patent hen-roost, the peculiarity of which is that there is an astronomical contrivance attached to the roost, by means of which the slumbering hens are gently tumbled off their perch exactly at daybreak. Such a thing ought to work well with other bipeds. It may be seasonable to add that there is but little ground for believing that the distinguished gentleman referred to has actually patented any such contrivance.

A GLANCE at Mexican politics is not encouraging. Porfirio Diaz, leader of one of the three parties into which the people were divided at the last election, has issued a proclamation, in which he proposes not only to do away with the present government, but also to disregard the constitution entirely, call an assembly of the notables, and establish a pure military distatorship. Whatever may be the faults of the Mexican people, they are sincerely attached to a republican form of government. Consequently, this manifesto has had the effect of uniting the other two parties in support of the constitution. At present the prospects of success among the insurrectionists are not very brilliant. In such a turbulent country as Mexico, however, it is impossible to foretell with any certainty what a day may bring forth. Could a staple government remain in existence long enough to push forward internal improvements which would bring in fresh life and energy from abroad, some hope might be entertained of the ultimate regeneration of the country.

P. S. GILMORE has returned home fully assured of the success of his contemplated monster musical peace jubilee. During his absence he has visited England, Prussia, Austria, Russia and Switzerland, together with many of the principalities and lesser governments of Europe, receiving on all sides the most courteous treatment, and from every government the most positive assurances of assistance and co-operation. The musical circles of all the great cities of the Continent accepted the idea with enthusiasm, and in England preparations are making for the formation of a monster chorus of five hundred voices, selected from all parts of the kingdom, to accompany the band. Many of the eminent composers of Europe expressed their determination to be present, and some of them are already engaged on pieces which will be given to the world for the first time under the roof of the new Coliseum.

AT Portsmouth, N. H., recently, a lamp left burning in a private residence was overturned late at night, and would have destroyed the house had not a favorite parrot, noticing what had happened, cried out, "fire, fire, fire," so lustily that the family was aroused and extinguished the flames.

A WORKMAN at Colt's armory, who has (or had) a very long beard, flowing down upon his breast, was the other day at work upon a small lathe revolving rapidly. He said he "felt something tickling his beard," and looking down, saw some of the longest hairs touching the lathe. Quick as a flash, before he had time to think of his danger, the longest hair of his beard caught in the lathe and wound him up; the next he knew the lathe was nearly turning out the inside of his nose, cutting out the cartilege that separates the nostrils; then, with a mighty effort, he straightened up, saving himself from further operations on the lathe by pulling out a handful of beard a foot long and as large round as his wrist—which will be handy for his wife to use as a "switch." His injuries are painful, but not dangerous.—Hartford Courant.

A GENTLEMAN of New York recently went to Europe for the purpose of being married to an American lady residing with her parents in Dresden, but on his arrival was informed that she had eloped the week before with a Polish Count.

BETHINK AND BELIEVE.

There is no doubt—there can be no doubt, that in the various investigations which science has made she has added to the trophies of the past, and what we see in material development is also going on in the other departments of life. Consumption, once the terror of the human family, is now partly shorn of those terrors. You can meet it at the threshold and dispute its invasion by that more than wonderful medicine, Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure, which has done more for its cure than all the remedies that have preceded it. We read every week of cures that Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure has made. We see those on the streets in the full enjoyment of life, who once were apparently on their way to the "narrow house." Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure has again relit the lamp of life and sent these once suffering invalids on their way rejoicing. Price $1.50 per bottle or 4 bottles for $5 at 167 Liberty street.

SHOCKS TO THE SYSTEM.

The first shock of winter tells tremendously upon enfeebled systems. Every one knows that in passing from a warm region to a cold one, or vice versa, the body requires a protection against epidemics, an acclimating medicine. All travelers and voyagers admit this. It is equally necessary to acclimate the system in passing the confines of one season and entering upon another. Autumn is gone and winter is here. Prepare the frame and the constitution to meet the change by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This inestimable vegetable tonic increases the staminal strength of those who take it, and renders them proof to a great extent against the devitalizing power of cold and damp. These two agents are as prolific of disease as tropical heat, and animal vigor—such vigor as this healthful and pure tonic diffuses through the whole organization—is a repellant which they cannot master. A large proportion of the colds, catarrhs, and pulmonary complaints which prevail in winter, might be avoided, by strengthening and regulating the system in advance with this invigorant and alterative. Not that it is recommended as a specific for those complaints, but as a preventive of their causes. On the other hand, it is not only a preventive of, but a specific for the indigestion, intestinal irregularities, malarious fevers, bilious attacks, and nervous affection, superinduced by a chilly and damp atmosphere.

TO ADVERTISERS.

THE
'United Presbyterian"

Offers unusual advantages as an advertising medium. It is a large, double sheet, Weekly, Religious and Secular Newspaper. It enters upon its Thirtieth Volume, January 4, 1872.
REASONS WHY
the United Presbyterian is unsurpassed, if equaled by any newspaper in the West:
FIRST—The United Presbyterian has a MUCH LARGER CIRCULATION than any paper published in the United Presbyterian denomination, and as large or larger, than any other religious paper published in this portion of the country.
SECOND—It goes into thousands of families weekly, many of whom take no other.
THIRD—No advertisement of an objectionable kind will be inserted, and the space alloted to advertisements is limited.
FOURTH—The terms are very moderate in proportion to those charged by periodicals of scarcely half the circulation.

NOW IS THE TIME

Finance and Trade.

NEW YORK, December 12, 1871.

The gold market was heavy throughout the day, closing at 109¼ to 109⅜. Prices declined to-day on an advance in securities at London, especially in Government bonds. Loans from 7 per cent. gold per annum to 1-16 per cent. per day. Clearances about sixty millions. Governments opened heavy, and during the morning declined slightly; at close were firmer, and recovered the decline in the early part of the day. Stocks active and irregular, opening steady, but becoming weak on the first call, when a decline of ¼@1 per cent. took place, on the suspension of the Ocean Bank. The market was buoyant and more active late in the day, when the advance in prices ranged from ⅛ to ¾ per cent. Lake Shore advanced 1¾ per cent, and Pacific Mail 1¾ per cent., and formed the chief features of the market. The advance in other active stocks averaged about 1 per cent. Money very firm, at from 7 gold to ⅛ for turning stocks. State bonds dull and rather heavy.

—The Chicago Tribune, of Monday, says: There is almost nothing to note in connection with the money market except the continuance of the plethora of money seeking investment. Capitalists, however, seem timid about letting money out in long investments, and the great bulk of the money is offered for short loans on collaterals or investment in bonds of one kind or another that can be readily turned into cash again. If the practice were thoroughly established of buying and selling real estate mortgages in this market as is to some extent now in New York, it would furnish occupation for a larger amount of the funds of private capitalists, and they would seek that class of investments instead of government bonds, which pay less interest. The banks of this city now hold in the aggregate probably $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 more deposits than they did before the fire. At the same time their loans have diminished so much that three or four of the leading banks have cash on hand and available exchange to the full amount of their deposits.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Monday, says: There was no change to report in the money market on Saturday, which ruled comparatively easy, at 6@7 per cent. for loans on call to good houses, on Governments. To stock operators, with large margins, anywhere from 7 to 10 per cent. is charged. On time, 90 days' and 4 months' paper of high grade, 10@12 per cent.; lower grades and not so well known are unsaleable.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

RIVER NEWS.

Notwithstanding the weather is mild and pleasant, the prospects for an early resumption of navigation are not encouraging; as yet the mild weather has had little or no influence on the ice, and besides if the river was clear of ice there is not water enough for navigation. The marks only call for about 34 inches, and our Cincinnati packets could do nothing on this.

Capt. W. Daniels, of Troy, Indiana, has purchased the Glasgow from the Louisville & Arkansas River Packet Company—price, $6,000. She will be placed in the Cincinnati and Red River trade.

Capt. J. A. Harton is acting Secretary pro tem of the Pilots' Association—vice W. H. Dorsey.

The Condor had gathered up a tow and was all ready to leave, when the ice came and put an end to the expedition.

—A meeting of prominent steamboatmen was held at the rooms of the Boatmen's' Association on Saturday afternoon, to make suggestions to Mr. Sherlock, Executive Committeeman from Ohio, in reference to the contemplated steamboat bill. As the results of the meeting at Pittsburgh had only been before steamboatmen here one day previous to the meeting, they had not considered the proposed bill, and therefore no important action was taken. From conversations we have had with nearly all the steamboat owners here, we are led to believe that the feeling is universal among them that, as there are other laws which meet every conceivable case, there should be no general steamboat law adopted, to be applied to the Western rivers.—Cincinnati Gazette.

—The Mariettian, of last week, says: The mouth of the Muskingum river is the safest winter harbor on the Ohio. On Tuesday forenoon its shelter was eagerly sought by the Express, Laura No. 2, Hope, Oella, and one or two smaller crafts.

—The Meigs County Press says: In these narrows the following boats are now harbored: Granite State, Huntington, Messenger, Mountain Boy, Emma Graham. Towboats: J. S. Neal, Raven, Charley Bowen, J. N. Camden and Condor, where they will remain until the river opens.

—The Illinois got off the bar at Platin Rock, Saturday, and now lies at the bank in a good harbor. Her damages will be light, and as soon as the river opens she will be taken to St. Louis to the docks, after which she will continue her trip to Ouachita.

—The tug Little Alps leaves Memphis to-day to assist the sunken Fanny Brandeis. The Fanny lies near the Tennessee shore, with 4 feet water over her lower deck. She was an old boat, of little value, and uninsured.

—At Ironton there is a movement to organize a local packet company. Capt. Bay proposes to put in the Crossley at $10,000, and get up a company with a capital of $25,000—the line of boats to consist of the Crossley and a new boat to cost $15,000.

—A reported collision between the Sam. J. Hale and Palestine on the Ohio is an error. The Abeona struck and damaged the Hale's wheel, at French Island, causing an all-night delay to the Hale. No other accident happened that the Hale crew knows of.

—The Racine ferryboat contest, which has been fierce for some weeks, has finally resulted in Hopkins being enjoined from landing on either side of the river. Two ferryboats have lately been carrying passengers free.

—Samuel Cook, formerly a well-known Upper Mississippi steamboat clerk, died at Clinton, Ia., on last Wednesday, aged 35 years. He leaves a wife and several children.

—Capt. H. R. Hendrickson, of the "White Ash Steamer," that plies between Neville and Foster, Ky., had the misfortune while on a trip to Concord, Ky., to fracture his right leg at the lower third.

—Capt. J. C. Bentley, the proprietor of the Bentley House, Louisville, and the De Paw House, New Albany, died of a congestive chill at the Bentley House, Sunday night.

—Previous to the recent rise in the river the little boys dug out over 3,000 bushels of coal from the bar opposite Neville, and sold it for eighteen and twenty-three cents per bushel.

—To-day the Idlewild takes the place of the transfer steamer Illinois, between Cairo and Columbus. The latter goes on the ways for repairs.

—The Rapides ran into the Converse, at Billy Johnson's, Red river, last week, and knocked off 40 bales of cotton.

—The Sheriff attached the new Sabine at New Albany for builders' claims to the amount of $2,000. Her owners gave bond.

—The Mason City Coal & Salt Company, in order to avoid expensive litigation, has gone into bankruptcy.

—Mr. W. F. Tuley, river editor of the New Albany Ledger, has been presented a fine gold watch and chain.

—Capt. John N. Shunk is in Louisville, inspecting the new canal.

—The Leclaire has resumed the Louisville and Tennessee river trade.

—During the recent run of coal, six large coal barges were sunk just above Neville.

—The Camelia is at Madison to go on the docks.

—Deck hands ask $60 per month at Memphis.

The Pulpit and the Pew.—The Pulpit and the Pew, published monthly by E. Goodenough & Co., 122 Nassau street, New York, contains many things that will prove alike profitable to pastors and congregations, many of whom will no doubt avail themselves of its useful hints. Discount to clergymen.

A meeting in favor of the Religious Amendment to the Constitution of the United States will be held in the First Presbyterian church, (Rev. Dr. Scovel's,) on Thursday evening, December 14th, at 7½ P. M. Hon. F. R. Brunot will preside, and Rev. Dr. McAliste, Secretary of the National Association, and other gentlemen will address the meeting. 2

Seriously Injured.—Yesterday, a man who was engaged in laying the track for the Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston Railroad, in South Pittsburgh, was seriously injured. He was working near a stone wall, about twenty feet high, from which a plank fell, striking him and knocking him to the ground. At last accounts the injured man was doing well.

Attempted Suicide.

Yesterday afternoon, Jacob Appy, who has been confined in the Allegheny lock-up for several days past, for insanity, attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself to the bar of his cell door. He was discovered in time, however, and cut down. He expressed a determination to put an end to himself, and as a precautionary measure he was searched and everything taken from him, by the aid of which he could accomplish his design.

Post Office Robbery.

Yesterday afternoon Detective Pender arrived from Altoona, having in custody Thomas Riley who is charged with being implicated in the robbery of the postoffice at Tyrone. The accused was seen in the company of two other men who are connected with the robbery, but who have not yet been arrested. He had a hearing before Commissioner M'Candless, which resulted in his being held to bail in the sum of $5,000. In default he was committed to jail.

Lindsay, who was arrested first, had a hearing, but the evidence showed him to be entirely innocent and he was honorably discharged.

Capture of a Horse Thief.

A man named Charles Croft was arrested by officer Laverty, of Mayor's Callow's police, on a charge of stealing a valuable horse from Mr. Goss, a resident of McClure township. Croft had been in the employ of Goss, but for some cause was discharged last week. Yesterday morning Mr. G. missed a horse valued at $350. The thief was traced to Allegheny, information given to the police, and Croft arrested while in the act of trying to sell the animal to an express man. The horse was returned to the rightful owner, and the thief placed in the lock-up. Croft will have a hearing before the Mayor this morning.

Coroner's Inquest.

Yesterday morning Coroner West held an inquest on the body of John H. McDonald, mention of whose death on the Connellsville Railroad was made in yesterday's GAZETTE. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death through the negligence of the yard master in permitting the shipping engineer, with engine and train, to remain on the main track, knowing that the accommodation train west was on time and would arrive in a few moments. The deceased resided at Brady's Bend, where his wife and three children now live. The body was sent to Tyrone, where the mother of deceased resides, for interment.

Market Superintendent

In the installment of Major Kilgore as County Treasurer, the city loses an able and efficient Market Superintendent. There are, however, several capable and trustworthy gentlemen after the position, and it will be for the Republicans of the incoming Councils to select Mr. Kilgore's successor. Among the names mentioned for the position, we may favorably mention that of our friend Joseph Caskey, of the Sixth ward. Mr. Caskey has for several years filled the position of Councilman, and has given satisfaction by his attention to the duties devolving upon him. Should he be so fortunate as to secure the Market Superintendency, we doubt not but that he will give satisfaction there also.

Accidental Shooting.

On Monday afternoon James Dickson, son of Mr. Robert Dickson, a resident of Sewickley, while out gunning, met with an accident which ended his life. While crossing a fence the top rail turned with the unfortunate young man, and threw him to the ground. Both barrels of his gun were loaded with shot, and almost the entire charge was lodged in his stomach and bowels. Notwithstanding the fearful character of the wound, the injured man retained his consciousness and walked three-fourths of a mile to the house of a colored man, where he obtained assistance, after which young Dickson was removed to his father's house. Death ensued about twelve o'clock Monday night. The deceased was twenty years of age.

Escape and Recapture.

Yesterday morning at about eight o'clock the turnkey of the work house went into the barber shop with a discharged prisoner, to get him his clothing. The turnkey left the key in the cellar which he should have taken to the office, locked in a small cupboard in the hall, forgetting it in the hurry of the moment. Five men, Martin Brawdy, Michael Harrington, Henry Kletts, a man named Stewart and another named Lewis, saw what had been done with the key, broke open the cupboard, took out the key, unlocked the cellar door and passed down into the paint shop. There they broke a window and made their escape. Shortly afterwards all the men except Lewis were recaptured by the officers of the work house, near Sharpsburg. Lewis made sure his escape, and Superintendent Cordier offers a reward of twenty-five dollars for his arrest. All the men except Brawdy were court prisoners.

For the Holidays.

As the holidays come round, the great question is, what to get for holiday presents. The sale of stock in "Arlington" presents an opportunity of providing a useful and substantial present, and one that every year will become more valuable.

To buy a share in this place, (which is only thirty dollars), and present it to a friend, will be a present that will be not only useful, but will be constantly increasing in value.

The opportunity of securing a lot at the price on which these are offered, and on terms so easy, brings it within the reach of all, and no one should let the opportunity pass unimproved. The extremely low price at which the stock is selling, and the payments, which are only five dollars cash and five dollars a month until paid, brings them within the reach of the poorest man in the city. And if the many thousands who are now living in small, crowded alleys and courts, would study their own interests and secure a lot in this place, they will certainly never have any cause to regret it. This stock is being rapidly taken, and as the place becomes more fully understood, it is constantly growing in favor. Call and see the plan of this beautiful plan of lots, and secure at least one share before they are all gone.

All information cheerfully given by calling on C. H. Love, Real Estate Broker, 58 Fourth avenue.

THE McCABE WILL.

More Witnesses Yesterday—Important Witness Testifying—Father Hickey on the Stand.

The McCabe will case, it is thought by competent authority, will come to an end sometime; in fact, there are cheering signs of that happy consummation even now. In the meantime, however, that our readers may keep the record straight, the testimony as taken yesterday is hereunto appended.

The hearing was resumed at nine o'clock yesterday morning, when

Mr. J. M. Pryor, Principal of the Second ward schools, was put upon the stand and testified to conversations he had with Mr. McCabe during the summer of 1870. He (Pryor) occupied a residence adjoining that of McCabe, and Mr. McCabe often in the afternoons during the pleasant weather, sat upon the "back porch;" on one occasion they talked together about two hours and a half, and he (Pryor) had no other impression than that Mr. McCabe was of sound mind; every expression and regard was full of meaning; these conversations were principally in the month of June, 1870.

Very Rev. Hickey sworn—I know James McCabe; do not recollect seeing him on the 10th of October 1870.

McClurg, counsel for execution, offered the records of the Recorder's office vol. 95, page 369, mortgage of Mrs. Ann McCrystal to Jas. McCabe for the payment of $3,470; in two equal annual installments, and also a marginal entry of satisfaction in full by James McCabe Oct. 10th, 1870.

Question—Were you present when this entry of satisfaction was made?

Objected to by Mr. Mitchell as irrevelant, and not rebutting testimony.

Answer—I was present when the book was presented for satisfaction, and saw Mr. McCabe sign his name; cannot say whether he was in his right mind or not; he was requested to sign and he did it.

Q.—Did you or did you not at the time see or hear anything which led you to believe that he was not competent to perform the act?

Objected to by Mitchell as a leading question.

A.—From his general debility, I could easily infer that his mental powers were failing.

Q.—Please answer the question as put.

A.—Well, I saw evidently from his bodily infirmity that he performed the act with difficulty.

Q.—Please answer the question as to mental not physical capacity.

A.—As to the amount of Mr. McCabe's mental ability I cannot say anything, except what was heretofore said.

Q.—Who beside yourself was present when this satisfaction was entered?

A.—I do not now recollect of any person being present except the officer who brought the book for signature.

Q.—At what place was this entry made?

A.—In Mr. McCabe's house.

Q.—Was the money paid to Mr. McCabe?

A.—The money was paid as well as I can recollect to Mr. Hawkins, Mr. McCabe's attorney at that time.

Q.—By whom was the book taken to Mr. McCabe's house?

A.—By one of the clerks in the Recorder's office.

Q.—At whose request?

A.—At the request of Mr. Hawkins on my suggestion.

Cross-examined—Question by Mr. Mitchell. Have you anything further to state in regard to the mental or physical condition of Mr McCabe at the date of that satisfaction?

A.—Nothing more than what has been already stated, that he was feeble both in mind and body.

R. H. Miller, sworn—Am transcribing clerk in the Recorder's office; have been there over two years; I knew Mr. S. H. McKinley, formerly a clerk there; he is dead; he died about six weeks ago; am well acquainted with his signature. (Looked at satisfaction of mortgage of James McCabe against Mrs. Ann McCrystal, referred to in Rev. Hickey's testimony.) That signature is in the hand-writing of Mr. McKinley; he is now dead.

The hearing then adjourned.

All Soldiers,

Sailors and Marines are requested to call at our office immediately.

ELECTIONS IN ALLEGHENY.

A Quiet Day Around the Polls—Mayor Callow Handsomely Endorsed—The Result in the Wards—The Fight Over the Council Tickets—Some of the Regulars, Beaten—The Full Returns.

The municipal election occurred in Allegheny yesterday and passed off in the most quiet manner,—although in some of the wards there were brisk contests over some of the minor offices. In the first ward the contest was on the Select Council ticket and School Directorship, but in both instances the regulars were successful. In the Second ward the Independent candidate for Alderman turned the tables on his opponent by a handsome majority. In the Third ward the Independent candidate for Select Council also came off victorious, which is the second time this gentleman has repeated the operation. In the Fourth ward the "Citizen' ticket" was perhaps the most strongly urged, but as elsewhere, generally it met with defeat.

The Mayoralty contest, as everybody expected, proved only to be a fight in name, and the triumphant manner in which Mayor Callow went through attests his popularity, and is a worthy compliment to his administration.

Herewith we give the full returns, commencing with

ANNIVERSARY OF THE Y. M. C. A.

The Meeting at Library Hall Last Night—Large Attendance and Interesting Exercises—Addresses by the Rev. F. A. Noble, Hon. Cephas Brainard, of New York, and H. K. Porter, Esq.

The Annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, of this city, was held last evening at Library Hall, and was the occasion of the gathering of a large audience, although not so large as was the case at the last anniversary of the Association. Unlike last year, none of the seats in the hall were reserved, and this fact added somewhat to the general satisfaction expressed by every one last evening with reference to the success of the affair.

At a few minutes before eight o'clock, H. K. Porter, Esq., appeared before the audience and apologized for a slight delay in the commencement of the exercises of the evening, and announced that these exercises would be opened by the singing, by a choir who had kindly volunteered their services, of the anthem,

"Rejoice in the Lord, all ye people."

After the singing of the anthem, which was admirably rendered, the audience was requested to join the choir in the singing of the 100th Psalm, which had been printed on slips and left on the seats. The Psalm was sung to the old, familiar tune of "Duke Street."

After this the Rev. Wm. Preston, D.D., read from the Scripture a part of the third chapter of Paul's epistle to the Ephesians.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Woodburn, after which the choir sang the quartette, by Bissell, beginning

"There is a land where earthly woes
And earthly sorrows shall cease.
No sin shall grieve, no tear shall flow,
In that sweet land of love and peace."

ADDRESS OF H. K. PORTER, ESQ.

H. K. Porter, Esq., President of the association, now delivered the opening address, in which he stated that he felt that the large audience present was an evidence on the part of the public of interest and encouragement, and not merely of courtesy and kindness. He thought it more especially an endorsement of the efforts of the association which he represented. You have given a great work into our hands, said the speaker, and we appear to-night before you for the purpose of giving you some report of our efforts for the performance of this great work.

The speaker stated that the annual report of the Association would not be read, as had been the custom formerly, but it had been printed, and would be placed in the hands of those present, as they left the house, in order that they might take it to their homes and there read and meditate upon its contents and the great importance of the work in which the Association was engaged. The success of the Association in the past was a source of great satisfaction, and a cause for thankfulness, and yet it had not been what it ought to be, and what could be desired. A resume of the work which had been done and was doing was now given, and for further information the audience was referred to the printed report.

The hymn,

"Soldiers of Christ are we,
Fighting for victory—
Toiling for heaven;
In his bright armor drest,
His cross our chosen crest,
And for our food and rest,
His word is given."

Was sung to the tune of "America," after which

THE HON. CEPHAS BRAINARD,

of New York city, was introduced, and delivered a very interesting and able address. The speaker referred to the great importance of the work in which the Pittsburgh Young Men's Christian Association was engaged. The influence and power of this Association has not been confined to the city of Pittsburgh. The audience well knew that many similar associations had been organized, and to some extent, succored by this Association. But he could tell the audience something that perhaps comparatively few of them were aware of: the influence and power of the Pittsburgh Association was felt throughout the entire State of Pennsylvania. Every Association in the State seems to have caught, in some measure, the spirit of this Association. He could state—and he did not so state by way of compliment—that the influence of this Association went further than the boundaries of the State; it was felt in every inernational conference held year after year. The Pittsburgh Association was doing a good work by infusing the right spirit into the eight hundred Associations which dot this land from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The speaker referred to the great issues which were wont to agitate the public mind. There were intemperance, the woman question, prison discipline, corruption, emigration—and on all these questions, and everywhere, reform was urged. The speaker stated that he had but little faith in any reform except that reform which worked a change of heart.

He wished to speak a word with reference to the importance of young men, and the great influence which they swayed in the community. They hold the balance of power, both socially and politically. How important it is then, that the influence of this large class of our communities should be turned in the right direction, and that the members of this class should be taught how to use this mighty influence. This was the province, to some extent, of the Young Men's Christian Association. Therefore he loved the organization, and loved to do something in the harness of such an organization. The Association was calculated to gather together muscular, manly, vigorous Christians, who were not only ready to give of their money to the great cause of right, but were willing also to devote their time, or a portion of it, to the same cause. The work of the Association was calculated to bring out, and set to working, weak, timid young men; and the exercise of the talents of these young men, small and weak though they be, was calculated to strengthen their possessors, and at the same time accomplish something for the Master.

The young men of our land are divided into two classes, and I cannot better tell you how these classes are divided than by relating to you a little incident which occurred in my own city—New York—a short time ago. I was passing through the streets of the city, on a Sabbath evening, and observing light in the windows of two buildings, on opposite sides of a principal street, I entered the first. Here I found about twenty young men smoking, drinking and discussing the probabilities of the election that was to occur on the ensuing Tuesday. These represented the class that controls our elections. Passing on to the opposite side of the street I witnessed another and quite a different scene. About a dozen young men were about a table engaged in prayer. Arising from their knees they went forth with tracts in their hands, and words of cheer in their mouths. These were representatives of the second class, that represented by your Association here to-night.

The speaker, in closing, urged the importance of a home for the Association, and trusted that ere another anniversary should be held, the corner-stone of such a building should be laid.

After the close of Mr. Brainard's address, the choir sang an anthem commencing

"O blest Creator of the light,
Who didst the dawn from darkness bring,
And in the heaven's glorious height
Didst bid the stars together sing."

THE REV. F. A. NOBLE,

Pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, of this city, was next introduced, and delivered a brief but forcible address. He stated that he had long observed the workings of the Young Men's Christian Association, and he desired to bear testimony to the good work that was being done through its instrumentality. The religious press, the ministry, and the public at large, endorsed the Association; and yet the organization had been subjected to some criticism. It is said the young men make mistakes. Granted; but what class is not liable to mistakes? Where can the line be drawn? People object that young men are impulsive; but this is really one of the greatest virtues of the young men, and one reason why they should be set to work. Their impulse should be turned in the right direction. It is objected that the Association works outside the church. These people remind me of those who say that the Presbyterian church, or the Episcopal Church, or the Methodist Church is the only true Church, and that outside the pale of the favored Church no one can be saved. This Association necessitates the broadening of our ideas of Christianity—and this is one of the great works of the Association. The body of Christ—the true Church—is not composed exclusively of Baptists, of Methodists, of Presbyterians, of Episcopalians, of Lutherans or of Catholics; but I verily believe each and all these sects are represented in the true church.

The speaker referred at considerable length to the fact that the effect of the Association was to unite all Christians in the great battle of right against wrong. The importance of this great warfare was referred to, and an urgent appeal extended, that the few, the comparatively small number, of our young men who were in the very front of the battle, should be encouraged and supported by the cordial good will and substantial sympathy of the community. The address of the reverend gentleman was eloquent, forcible and liberal, and called forth frequent outbursts of applause from the audience. The speaker closed with the words—"Work, for the night soon cometh when no man can work."

THE USUAL COLLECTION

Was now taken up, and from appearances a very handsome sum was realized.

A trio was sung by the choir, after which, with the doxology by the entire congregation, and the benediction by the Rev. W. B. Roland, the exercises of the evening were concluded.

The choir which furnished the music, which was most excellent, was that of the First Baptist Church, composed of the following ladies and gentlemen: Mrs. Sellers, Miss Orton, and Messrs. W. H. Everson and Barclay M. Everson. Mr. John Q. Everson officiated at the piano, and Mr. Nichols presided at the organ.

THE PRINTED ANNUAL REPORT,

as we before stated, was placed in the hands of those present as they left the hall, and since it will thus obtain a wide circulation, it is unnecessary to reproduce it in these columns. The Association, as regards both membership and finances, is reported in a very healthy condition. The "report" embodies not only the report of the President, but also those of the working committees, with a complete list of officers and members.

The first of a course of free lectures will be delivered at the Association hall, corner of Penn and Sixth streets, on Tuesday evening next, by the Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, of the Third U. P. Church, Allegheny.

The next case taken up was that of Michael Lipp vs. the Allegheny County Home. This was an action to recover fees alleged to be due for signing relief certificates. Justice Lipp claimed that each Justice was entitled to thirty cents, but the Directors declined to pay him more than half the amount. ## RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Meeting of the Members of the 139th Regiment.

A meeting of a number of the members of the 139th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, assembled at the office of Captain S. C. Schoyer, on Fourth avenue, yesterday afternoon.

On motion Judge Collier was called to the chair, and Captain W. P. Herbert appointed Secretary. The Chair stated the object of the meeting to be to take action in reference to the death of their friend, and late esteemed associate, Major A. M. Harper, and paid a touching and eloquent tribute to the memory of the deceased.

On motion, Captains Samuel Harper, S. C. Schoyer and J. C. Sample, were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions expressive of the views of those present. After a short absence the committee reported as follows:

WHEREAS, In the inscrutable dispensation of Providence, our beloved comrade, Major Albert M. Harper, late Adjutant of the One Hundred and Thirty-ninth Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, has been taken from the scenes of an active and successful career on earth to the eternal life hereafter; and as it is peculiarly fitting that we, his companions in the field of war, and who knew him so intimately and well in peace as well as in war, should express our sorrow in the bereavement of his untimely death; therefore.

Resolved, That we record our hearty testimony to the brave and soldierly qualities of our comrade, who through many trying scenes of an active service in the field, bore himself as an intrepid soldier, an ardent and zealous patriot, a gentleman in the truest sense of the word, always exemplifying those traits of morality and religion which make the perfect man.

Resolved, That in the death of our late comrade we sustain a shock to many pleasant and fraternal ties, his country has lost a true patriot, society the pattern of a true gentleman and citizen, his family an affectionate son and brother.

Resolved, That in their unspeakable sorrow we tender our condolence to the father and mother, and brothers and sisters of our deceased comrade.

Resolved, That, as a mark of our profound love for the memory of our deceased comrade, we attend his funeral.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the newspapers of the city, and that a copy be transmitted to the family of our late comrade.

The report was received and adopted unanimously, after which the meeting adjourned.

Public Entertainments.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Another large and enthusiastic house greeted the renowned Wyndham Comedy Company last evening. They are growing in favor nightly and we shall anticipate a flattering acknowledgement from the amusement going public for them during their brief engagement. "Progress" and the sparkling comedy of "Woodcock's Little Game" will be repeated to-night.

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.—"Help" was repeated at this popular place of resort last night to a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Murphy is becoming a general favorite in Pittsburgh, and with the assistance and very able support of the excellent stock company, must win the general praise which is liberally bestowed upon a deserving artist. "Help" again to-night.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES.—The crowd at the Varieties last night, if could be, was in excess of the opening night of Monday. The stars are immense in their several acts, and are extravigantly received by the audience. Another big bill for to-night.

LIBRARY LECTURES—To-morrow evening Mr. Dan Dougherty is to lecture at Library Hall. Mr. Dougherty is probably the most eloquent orator now living in America. We, at least, do not remember to have heard his superior. In Philadelphia and Washington, where his name and fame are as familiar as household words, the simple announcement that he is to speak is sufficient to throng the largest auditoriums in those cities. Here it is, as yet, somewhat different. Our people have been so often deceived, that when last year Mr. Dougherty lectured for the first time in this city, the house was only comfortably filled. But this time, thanks to the impression he then made, we expect to see such a throng as has not yet blessed the eyes of the lecture committee. We know of no more agreeable, instructive and elevating way to spend an evening, than by listening to this golden tongued orator.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Frazer's Minstrel and Pantomime Troupe gave an excellent entertainment last evening to a good but not very crowded house. If the merits of this truly deserving company were known to our citizens, they would have crowded houses nightly. There is nothing in the performance that can give offence, and is free from all vulgarity. Their jokes are rich, their songs and dances are new and original, and thus far they have been the recipients of hearty encores in their several acts. An entire change of programme to-night, when we hope to see a full house, such a one as their performance will warrant. Price of admission seventy-five cents, and no charge for reserved seats.

CITY HALL.—To-night the celebrated pugilists, Jem Mace and Joe Coburn, will give a grand opening exhibition at City Hall. They are both in the very best of trim and will give each other a hard tussle on the stage. There will doubtless be a large attendance for an opportunity to see such splendid athletes and prize ring champions together is seldom afforded in a life time.

THE COOMBS COMEDY COMPANY.—The sale of seats continues at Klebers, and a few very desirable seats still remain unsecured. The press throughout the country speak in the highest of praise, and of their success in filling houses nightly. Monday, opening night, Loves Sacrifice.

BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.—Will remain on exhibition at the Art Gallery only a few days longer. We hope that none of our readers will miss this opportunity of seeing one of the greatest works of art ever on exhiqition in Pittsburgh.

A Lavish Display.

The lavish display of jewelry at Mr. W. W. Wattles', No. 26 Fifth avenue, is the cause of many comments from the ladies and gentleman, especially the former, upon visiting his establishment. The costly goods presented for inspection are rich and valuable and consist of an extensive variety of gold and silver ware, watches, jewels and precious stones, the best of finish and of curious workmanship. Our readers in search of a suitable holiday present for an intimate or particular friend, will not overlook the many attractions that are constituted in the jewelry line and offered at very reasonable prices by Mr. Wattles, 26 Fifth avenue.

Mayor Blackmore, since his election, has become almost as popular with the people as Louis Green's Central Shaving Saloon. Hundreds are running after him daily, and many go away disappointed, but of the many who visit this cozy saloon of Mr. Green's not one has gone away dissatisfied. Louis always pleases his customers, and continues to grow in popularity. His saloon is in the Central Hotel.

TRINITY CHURCH CHIME.

The Songs of the Bells To-day.

"Mankind, like me, are often found Possessed of naught but empty sound."
"I ring to sermon with a lusty boom
That all may come and none stay at home."
"Music is medicine to the Mind."
"I sound to bid thee to repent
In hope of life when breath is spent."
"Unto the church I do you call;
Death to the grave, will summon all."
"When of departed hours we toll the knell,
Instruction take and use the future well."

The above are a few of the inscriptions on the ancient bells of the old world that have came down to us. We might multiply them indefinitely, but these are sufficient to suggest the idea of the ancients connected with the use of the church and Turret bells. Of bells, it can with truth be said that, since their introduction they have been highly regarded by all nations, the Turks alone excepted. Even the Puritans, though the enemies of church music, and of almost everything which had been put to superstitious uses did not wage direct war against bells. Certainly there is nothing of simple human contrivance, for which people in every locality have stronger regard or with which associations are more deeply mingled and there is that in the associations connected with bells, which has caused them to be considered throughout the ages as appropriate memorials of departed friends or of important epochs or events. An old English writer says: "From youth to age, the sound of the bells is sent out through crowded streets, or floats with sweet melody above the quiet fields; it gives tongue to time which would otherwise pass over our heads as quietly as the clouds and gives warning of its perpetual flight; it is the voice of rejoicing at festivals, at christenings, at marriages and of mourning at the departure of the soul."

"Oh, what a preacher is the time worn bell,
Reading great sermons with its iron peal."

Well, at last we are to have a chime of bells—the first, at least the first comprising so many bells, in Pittsburgh. Some years ago the Vestry of Trinity Church resolved to have a chime of bells, but the tower of the old Church was not strong enough for a full chime, and only four of the ultimate set were then procured. The tower of the elegant new edifice, however, being abundantly strong, five additional bells have been procured, all from the celebrated foundry of E. A. & G. R. Meneely, at West Troy, New York.

These nine bells were placed in the tower yesterday, and will, between 3 and 4 o'clock P. M. this day, be first played upon and fill the air with a melody, hitherto unheard in Pittsburgh, a melody that will reach and please every ear throughout our busy streets, and be reverberated back from the hills on every side. These bells may be described as follows:

E flat—weight 3,452 lbs.
F—2,362 lbs. C—1,713 lbs.
A flat—1,497 lbs. B flat—1,050 lbs.
C—720 lbs. D flat—621 lbs.
D—514 lbs. E flat—420 lbs.

The large E flat has the following inscription: "The corner-stone of this, the third church edifice built, by Trinity Parish, was laid June 2, 1870. The chime was completed by adding five bells at the consecration. Advent 1871." On the B flat, one of the old bells, is the following inscription:

"I ring my first peal in the first year of the Diocese of Pittsburgh to the honor of its first Bishop, Right Reverend John Barret Kerfoot, D. D. Venite exultemus Domino."

On D flat is this: "The Children's Bell"—this bell having been paid for by the offerings of the Sunday School children.

The entire weight of the chime is 12,259 pounds.

Prof. Peter J. McGoldrick, from Troy, gives us the following as the

of music to be executed by him this afternoon:

1. Changes on Eight Bells.
2. March for Bells, by G. Meneely.
3. Evening Hymn.
4. Song.
5. Christmas Hymn.
6. Duett of Liberty.
7. Hail Columbia.
8. Waltz.
9. Home Sweet Home.

The music in the above programme other than sacred, is not authorized by the church, but permitted as a test of the working qualities of the chime, in the interests of the Messrs. Meneely preparatory to their acceptance by the vestry. The invariable success of the Meneely bells in their world wide dissemination is abundant guarantee that there will be no failure to-day.

LADIES' FURS.

Go to Wm. Fleming & Co.'s, 139 Wood Street, for Ladies' Furs and Robes, and Save from 15 to 20 Per Cent.

The finest stock of Ladies, Misses' and Children's Furs ever brought to this market is now offered for sale at the great Fur Emporium of William Fleming & Co., 139 Wood street. In consequence of the great demand for furs at this popular establishment, the Messrs. Fleming & Co. have been compelled to go East for goods three times the present season, and have just returned with a stock superior in every respect to any ever offered in this city, which they are selling rapidly at low prices, fully fifteen to twenty per cent. cheaper than the same goods can be purchased at any other house. The present stock consists of all the various grades of furs including the fine Hudson Bay and mink sables, Astrachan and Persian lamb, Siberian squirrel, German fitch and water or Alaska mink, ranging in price in the order named, from one hundred dollars down to three dollars, so that all tastes can be suited, both as to quality and price. They have also a large assortment of children's and misses furs in sets.

In addition to the large stock of furs at this popular establishment, we noticed a fine assortment of fox, wolf and buffalo robes, afghans and sleigh wraps, of a very superior quality, which they are selling like the furs at figures fully twenty per cent. below what other houses are charging for the same quality of goods. A visit to 139 Wood street will convince the most skeptical that goods are sold cheaper there than any other house in the city.

SOMETHING NEW.

CHEAP HOMES AT ARLINGTON.

The terms on which we propose to sell these lots, are so easy, the price so low, that every one may secure a splendid lot in this beautiful location.

We have concluded to have only as many lots as there are shares of stock, so that each one will be entitled to just one lot. The lots will be of different size; those at the station being the most desirable will be smaller than those at a greater distance.

In this, as in all places, some lots are more desirable than others. So that all may have an equal chance, as soon as possible after all the stock is paid in, the choice of lots will be sold on the premises, at auction; the price paid for the choice to be paid in cash, forming a general fund, and after paying all expenses of the sale, the proceeds of the sale to be divided among the stockholders, in proportion to the number of shares held by each. It can be thus readily seen that the cost of lots is only thirty dollars, and whatever is paid over that for a choice, a portion of the money so paid will be returned to each stockholder.

Many of these Lots are 50 ft. Front by 100 ft. Deep,
AND
SOME 50 FEET FRONT BY OVER 200 FEET DEEP.

This Land is beautifully Located, and in a good neighborhood, being convenient to Churches, Schools, &c.

This is an Opportunity Heretofore Unheard Of
TO SECURE A HOME
WITHOUT PAYING LARGE PROFITS
To Those who Buy Large Tracts of Land
AND THEN SELL IT OUT IN SMALL LOTS.

A number of persons who are acquainted with the location of this property have offered one hundred dollars for a common-sized lot in this place, but in every instance we have declined to sell. Having undertaken to dispose of these lots on the terms before stated, we shall continue to do so. A number of shares have been disposed of, and the numbers inquiring in regard to this place leaves no doubt but that the stock will be taken in a short time, and the offer is so liberal that no one, wishing to secure a home in the country, can afford to let the opportunity pass unheeded.

If one-tenth of the shares represented should improve their property during the year, it will greatly enhance the value of the lots remaining unimproved, thus enabling the holders to sell at a handsome advance over the original cost of their lots, and thus receiving a handsome profit on their investment.
